

MODERN CZECH HISTORY: THE OUTPUT
OF CZECHOSLOVAK EXILE PUBLICATIONS AND
CZECHOSLOVAK EXILE JOURNALS, 1969-1987

Ivan Pfaff

This article provides an overview of the most important publications on modern Czech history, above all those which have appeared in Index (Cologne) and 68 Publishers (Toronto) as well as in the journals Svědectví (Paris), Listy (Rome), Proměny (Basel), Text (Munich), and Právo lidu (Wuppertal). In addition, the author offers analytical insights into the thematic, conceptual, and methodological aspects of the works discussed. He concludes that on whole, the historical output of the publications surveyed is "uneven" and "displays no systematic representation."
