

LETTERS FROM THE TIME OF RESTORATION:
THE EDITION OF BERNARD BOLZANO'S LETTERS
TO HIS FAMILY AND TO FRANZ EXNER

Steffen Höbne

In the framework of Bolzano's correspondence as part of the Bolzano complete work edition, the letters to Bolzano's family and the correspondence with Franz Exner have now been published. From these, a special scientific importance may be attached, above all, to the 30 letters addressed to Exner. From that correspondence, important implications for the cultural and educational history of Bohemia and Austria may be deducted.
